THE Fall Term of this Institution will commence Wednesday, Sept. 4, and continue eleven weeks.
BOARD OF TEACHERS.
A. J. SANBORN, A. B., Principal.
Mrs. M. J. SANBORN, Teacher of French.
GEO. H. BLAKE, Assistant.
Miss E. J. NORMIS, Teacher of Primary Department.
WILBUR F. WHIPPLE, Teacher of Music.
ABEL T. WAY, Teacher of Penmanship.
The above Teachers have been carefully selected and we feel assured that no school in this part of the State offers more ample facilities for education than this. The building is spacious, neatly furnished, and well suited for the comfort of the student. The school is situated in the pleasant and thriving village of South Hardwick, easy of access, and surrounded by an intelligent community. Particular attention will be given to those who wish to pursue a Classical Course, preparatory to entering College. It will be the aim of the teachers to teach, not isolated facts, but principles and their relations to each other; to teach practical knowledge, that the student may not go out into life like the hooded messenger of the Savan, but with his knowledge classified and arranged, so that he may know how, when and where it is to be called into use. The best manner of teaching the different branches will be discussed in a class formed for the benefit of those intending to teach.
The Piano, Harmony and Thorough Bass will be thoroughly taught, and vocal music will be a daily exercise in school.
The debating society will give a good opportunity for speaking and writing, both to Ladies and Gentlemen. Lectures will be given by the Principal upon the different branches pursued during the term.
Board from $1.50 to $2.00, including room, washing, fuel, &c.
Rooms for self-boarders one shilling per week.
For tuition see small handbills.

Negro Patriotism.

I sat in my tent door last evening, says a correspondent, thoughtfully, but very thoughtlessly, humming "Dixie." I had not observed Charles, a contraband, here, who sat just within the tent.

"We stop a singin' dat song now, massa!" said he, interrupting me.

"Why?" I inquired.

Charles was confused for a moment, but I pressed the question.

"Well," he replied hesitatingly, "it don't belong to my perfection, sir, dat's all, I s'pose. I don't wish I was in Dixie, I s'pose!" continued he. "None o' de niggers does; you may bet your life o' dat?"

"Where is Dixie, Charles?"

"It's Norfolk, date whar 'tis," was the indignant reply. "Kills de niggers in Dixie, just like sheep, a working in de batteries!"

The idea of our contest is fully appreciated by the colored people. The representations at the North that the slaves do not understand the cause for which the federal army are moving upon the South, are entirely false. I have seen here and in Hampton scores of the fugitives, and conversed with them, and I have never found one who did not perfectly understand the issue of the war, and hang with anxiety upon its success or failure.

I was particularly struck with this at Hampton, when the battle of Great Bethel was progressing. They crowded together in little squads about the streets, listening to the report of the cannon in the distance, or the reports of those who came in from the field. Many of them were almost insane with anxiety, and expressed themselves extravagantly. "If the Unioners get the fight," I said, "what will it do for you?"

"Den we'll be free!" answered all who stood near me, almost in one breath.

"But if they lose the battle?"

"O, don't it be worse for us dan ebber," they said, shaking their heads, mournfully, and in their simplicity believing that all the issue of the war hung upon the result of that day. They are coming in day by day, some of them managing to steal their way from great distances.—Home Journal.

A Sad Prayer-Meeting.

The prayer-meeting here referred to has not yet been held. It may be some time before it takes place. The account of it may be found in the sixth chapter of Revelation: "And they said to the mountains and rocks, Fall on us and hide us from the face of Him that sitteth on the throne, and
